SESSION 1
Leaving an Imprint: The Transgressive Mark
at Oxford Exchange
Sunday, October 18, 2015 at 11:00 am
Hosted by Allison and Robby Adams
Join us for brunch at Oxford Exchange! Margaret Miller, Director of USF Institute for Research in Art, will give a presentation describing the investigative and exploratory role of the university press as a publisher of fine art prints and sculpture. Her presentation was originally given at Printmaking in the Expanded Field, a conference held at the Oslo National Academy of the Arts.

SESSION 2
Cuba on the Cusp at The Vault
Thursday, January 21, 2016 at 7:00 pm
Hosted by Carolyn Wilson
This cocktail reception at The Vault will feature contemporary Cuban artist Glexis Novoa in conversation with Noel Smith, Curator of Latin American and Caribbean Art at USFCAM. Smith and Novoa will consider the current changes in the United States’ political relationship with Cuba and what that will mean for Cuban contemporary art and artists.

Picnic at The Music Box
Saturday, March 19, 2016 at noon
Sarah Howard, Curator of Public Art and Social Practice, with members of the New Orleans Airlift artist collective, will offer a behind the scenes look at the evolution of The Music Box: Tampa Bay. This musical architecture project was developed in partnership with Community Stepping Stones and is installed at their site in Sulphur Springs. Musicians and collaborators from New Orleans Airlift, Community Stepping Stones, and USF will provide an interactive tour of the installation and a picnic lunch will be served.

SESSION 4:
Graduating USF MFA Celebration
Saturday, April 23, 2016 at 6:00 pm
Hosted by Stanton Storer at his home
Meet the next generation of exceptional artists at this cocktail reception and light buffet. Graduates from the USF School of Art and Art History’s Master of Fine Arts class of 2016 will give short presentations on their work exhibited in USFCAM’s annual MFA Graduation Exhibition.
